ARMY SQUASHLEVELS MEMBERSHIP

1. SquashLevels is an online software service that assigns a numerical 'level' representing the current playing level of squash players of all standards based on their results input by players or received from tournament systems. See SquashLevels level FAQ. It also offers repeatable skills and fitness-based tests which can be done both on and off the court, all of which allows players to track their playing performance and skills over time.
2. Army Squash is now affiliated with SquashLevels, offering Army personnel who play squash, of all standards, FREE premium membership. Benefits are shown at Annex A and include:
 - a. Monthly Challenges with prizes.
 - b. Full match history for all players.
 - c. Head to head and result prediction.
 - d. Follow your friends, teammates, pros.
 - e. Monthly most improved leader boards.

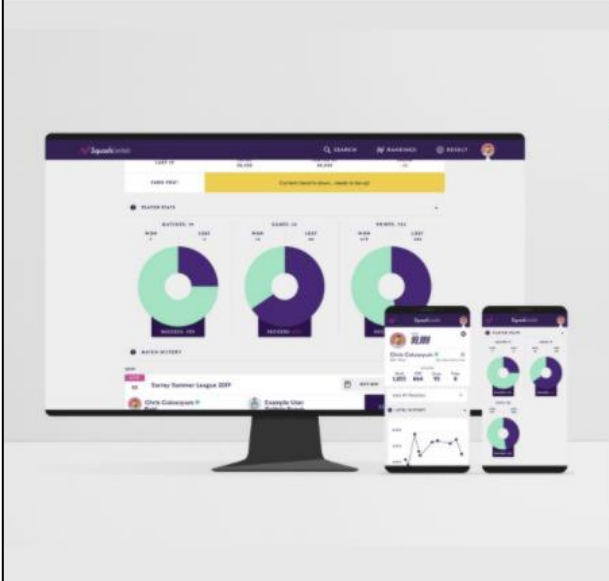

- f. Monthly skills testing leader boards.
 - g. Match self-review with coaching tips from SquashSkills.
 - h. 'What-if?' match and level prediction.
 - i. Statistics and Analysis.
 - j. Win streaks and PBs.
 - k. Communication portal for registered Army Squash members.
 - l. Live Rankings (Army, Corps and Garrison location).
 - m. Local Box Leagues.
3. All Army personnel who play squash either socially or competitively are encouraged to join SquashLevels. Instructions on how to do so are at Annex B – it only takes a few minutes.
4. In accordance with the Army Squash strategy and direction issued by the Army Sports Control Board, all individuals wishing to enter representative (Army and Corps Level) squash events in the future will require SquashLevels membership to facilitate live results tracking. This can be completed at event registration if required.
5. Army units or formations that would like to use SquashLevels to run local box leagues should contact the Army Squash Administration Officer who will register your intent and will engage with the developer to deliver this capability and provide instructions on its use.
6. Formation HQs are requested to promulgate this DIN throughout their AORs and ensure all units and sub-units, including Army Reserve units, adhere to this new policy.
7. The process for registration to SquashLevels is included at the following link <https://army.squashlevels.com/dashboard.php>) and at Annex B for ease of reference. Squash players at any level who have difficulty registering are to contact the Army Squash Administration Officer who will assist you in the registration process.
